

How to Download Facebook Page Data

By: MeaResea Homer

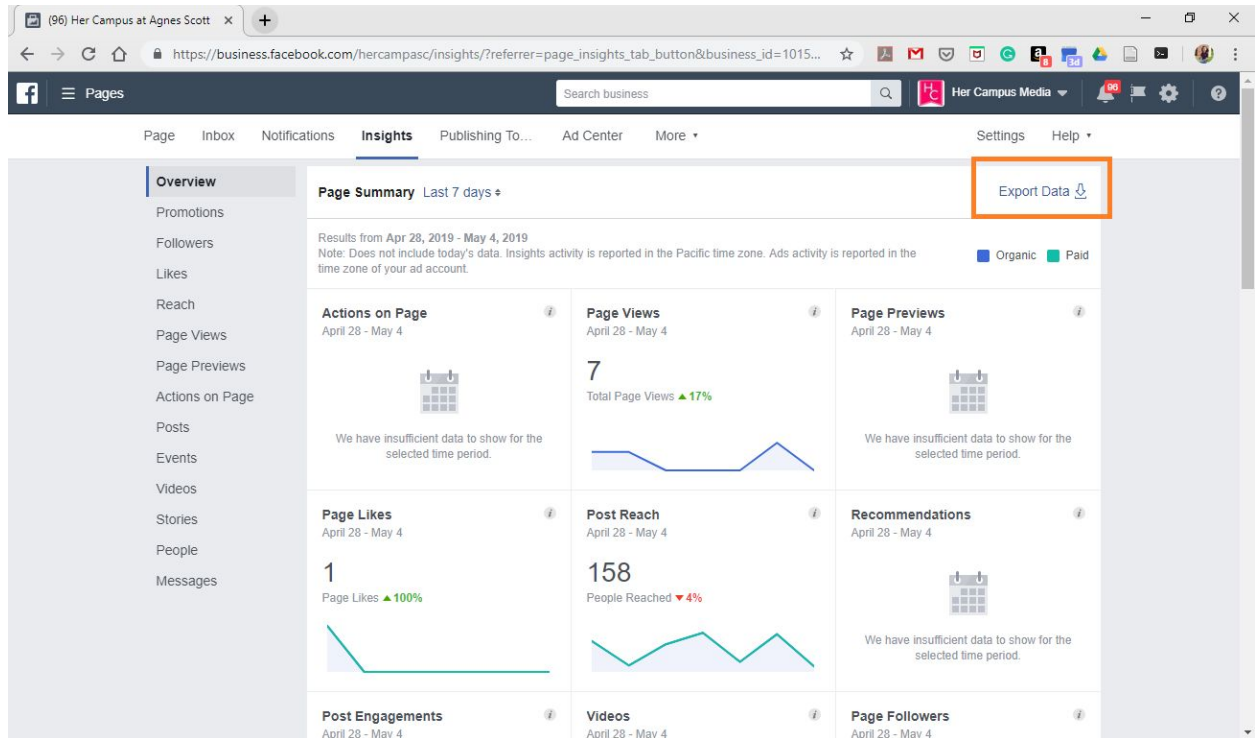

Last Updated: May 5, 2019

Facebook Page Analytics can be downloaded from a business account. Follow the steps below to download data from your business page!

After you have logged into the personal Facebook account associated with the Business Account, go to the business page. Click on “Insights” in the top white bar.

Next, click “Export Data,” in the right corner of the Page Summary section.

A window will appear where you can select your customized data set.

